Newsletter for 15th March 2020

READINGS

Ephesians 4:17-5:2 (P800) and John 6:35,41-51(P728)

SENTENCE:

Be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. Ephesians 5:1-2

PRAYER OF THE DAY:

Grant, O Lord,

That we may see in you the fulfilment of all our need,

And may turn from every false satisfaction

To feed on the true and loving bread

That you have given us in Jesus Christ;

Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

One God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Good Living

communities through Christ centred worship, prayer, compassion and service*

PAUSE FOR THOUGHT

From Craig's desk.....

It's wonderful to have Dale Campbell preaching this morning and I'm looking forward to hearing what he has prepared to share with us. His sermon title is Good Living. So often we think of the Bible as a manual or a rule book but this is to diminish God's word to us. The Bible is full of wisdom for life, and when we live according to it's teaching we find ourselves living well. When there is instruction about how to live it's not to police our behaviour or restrict us. Rather the instruction given in the Bible is to enable us to live well within healthy boundaries. Just as we give our children boundaries to keep them safe and ensure that they grow and thrive, so God intends for us to live in freedom and enjoy a fruitful life. But freedom is not unlimited and God's discipline is always for our benefit – to enable us to enjoy abundant life without indulging in things that cause harm to us or to others. May we all grow in godly wisdom, find freedom in living according to God's ways, and enjoy the fruitful and abundant life that he created us for.
